

Library & Information Science Collection

Combines Library & Information Science Abstracts (LISA) with full-text titles to create a complete collection for exploring library science

- Combines Library & Information Science Abstracts (LISA), the leading index for library science, with full text for many titles.
- Covers 500+ periodicals from around 50 countries and offers content in more than 20 languages, representing the comprehensive coverage of key literature in library science providing full-text support for core titles included in LISA.
- Includes professional publications and scholarly journals.
- Subject coverage includes all aspects of librarianship, library users, information retrieval, and more.
- Key titles include Choice, Internet Research, and Library Journal from publishers such as:
 - American Library Association
 - Springer Nature
 - Cambridge University Press
 - Emerald Group Publishing
 - Johns Hopkins University Press

Subject coverage:

- Information management
- Information technology
- Knowledge management
- Librarianship
- Libraries and archives
- Library management
- Library technology
- Library use and users
- Online information retrieval

To learn more or request a free trial, contact us at:
Library & Information Science Collection

about.proquest.com

To talk to the sales department, contact us at 1-800-779-0137 or sales@proquest.com.

ProQuest
Part of Clarivate